

Message from the Chairman

The 34th Riverland Wine Show has once again proved to be a valuable forum and showcase for the regions wines. Wines from the region have performed well across classes and have been well represented amongst the medalists. It should be noted that some of the small producers from the Riverland have performed very strongly in this year's show. The strike rate for medals in this year's show was 27% for wines entered, which is the highest I have seen in the eight years in which I have been involved in the show. This is extremely pleasing to see as it shows that producers are striving for excellence both in terms of style and quality.

Some of the classes which have performed well in this year's show include: Viognier, Chardonnay, Petit Verdot, Durif, Sweet Whites, Fortifieds and Brandies. There were also some very strong wines in the blended red classes. Some of the best wines initiated strong debate and discussion amongst the judges.

Several producers have once again been audited this year in line with ASVO recommendations, to ensure their eligibility to enter and compliance to show regulations.

The seminar "Some Like it Hot", held in conjunction with the wine show, has once again been well supported and emphasizes the Show Committee's commitment to extension work which fosters continued improvement in viticulture and winemaking techniques, which hopefully will extend to improvements in style and quality in regional wines in the future.

I would like to acknowledge the commitment and support of our wine show sponsors. This support is invaluable and has once again enabled us to hold a very successful show. I also wish to thank all who have assisted in the running of this year's show, both committee members and volunteers, as without this support we would not have a regional wine show.

Eric Semmler
Chairperson Riverland Wine Show Committee.

11. The stewards reserve the right to transfer entries from one class to another.

32. Exhibitors are expected to comply with the Winemakers Federation (WFA) Code of Practice for the display of awards (except for clause 1, which applies to wines labelled for export only).

Winemakers Federation of Australia

Code of Practice for the display of awards

1. Producers will only display awards gained from competitions authorised by the AWBC.
2. Producers will not use medals, stickers, symbols or other devices in order to misleadingly convey the impression that the wine has received an award at an open, objective and independent competition.
3. Awards received by an individual wine will bear the year of award and the class description and as a general rule shall only be applied to wines bearing the name under which the exhibit was entered. However, in recognition that a wine could be entered in a show before a wine has been finally allocated to a Brand, portability of an award so that it can stay with the wine which won it shall be permitted providing it is allowed by that show.
4. Awards received by a class of wines (eg “Winemaker of the Year”, “Most Successful Exhibitor”) shall not be used to suggest the individual wine has received any particular distinction. These awards will not be presented on the bottle in the form of a medal.
5. Compliance by a producer (including by subsidiaries or by associated companies) with this Code of Practice is a prerequisite for entry to any show of which the display of awards or medals are authorised by the AWBC for export to Europe.
