

2008 Chairman's Report

It is my pleasure on behalf of the Riverland Wine Show Society to present the results of the 2008 Riverland Wine Show. Judging took place on the 29th & 30th of September 2008 with the Exhibitor's, Public Tastings and Presentation Dinner to be held on Saturday 11th October

The 2008 event marked a number of changes for the Riverland wine show including a new Chair of Judges Mr. Glenn James, with considerable national Wine Show Circuit judging experience.

Following on from this, 2008 also marks the year the Riverland wine show will farewell a number of familiar faces. Mike Farmilo, who this years served as Executive Chair of Judges will retire from the show after 17 years in the role of Chair of Judges. Also departing will be long serving panel leader, Andrew Wigan and panel member Colin Gaetjens. The Riverland Wine Show Society would like to thank each of these for many years of committed service to the show. They have truly been integral to the growth, development and stature that the Riverland Wine Show now enjoys.

As promised a more rigorous program of random audits has been instituted. The committee feel that this is crucial in raising the standard and profile of the Riverland Wine Show, and would like to thank Jenny Semmler for giving of her time and expertise to drive this process.

Wine show entries in 2008 showed a marked improvement in quality across all entries which was reflected in the high medal strike rate. This is a testament to the resilience of the Wine Industry, which has been able to flourish despite less than ideal conditions.

2008 also saw a shift to the Renmark Hotel as the venue for judging and the prestigious Presentation Dinner. The Renmark Hotel has thus far proved to be an ideal venue in terms of ease of use for setting up and storing wines as well as providing an excellent distraction free environment for the judges to assess the wines. Of special note is the level of service and attention to detail from the staff of the Renmark Hotel which was commented on by judges and committee members alike.

An analysis of the results will be presented at the 36th Riverland Wine Show Presentation Dinner. The Wine Show Committee would like to thank the Wine Show's sponsors and all exhibitors for their continued support of the Riverland Wine Show which has once again proved a valuable forum to assist the continued growth and development of the Wine Industry in to the future.

10. The stewards reserve the right to transfer entries from one class to another.

32. Exhibitors are expected to comply with the Winemakers Federation (WFA) Code of Practice for the display of awards (except for clause 1, which applies to wines labelled for export only).

Winemakers' Federation of Australia

Code of Practice for the display of awards

1. Producers will only display awards gained from competitions authorised by the AWBC.
2. Producers will not use medals, stickers, symbols or other devices in order to misleadingly convey the impression that the wine has received an award at an open, objective and independent competition.
3. Awards received by an individual wine will bear the year of award and the class description and as a general rule shall only be applied to wines bearing the name under which the exhibit was entered. However, in recognition that a wine could be entered in a show before a wine has been finally allocated to a Brand, portability of an award so that it can stay with the wine which won it shall be permitted providing it is allowed by that show.
4. Awards received by a class of wines (eg "Winemaker of the Year", "Most Successful Exhibitor") shall not be used to suggest the individual wine has received any particular distinction. These awards will not be presented on the bottle in the form of a medal.
5. Compliance by a producer (including by subsidiaries or by associated companies) with this Code of Practice is a prerequisite for entry to any show of which the display of awards or medals are authorised by the AWBC for export to Europe.
